

Cornerstone Books Serving the Christian Community

E-newsletter, December 2008

Welcome to our first monthly E-newsletter! Now I know it seems a bit daft to start in December rather than January, but there is some important news that I want to share with you. Now I guess you will have skimmed down the page to see who is writing to you, and then you are wondering who is this person? For those who have been in the bookshop recently, you will then look at the photograph and put two and two together. But for the rest of you, a brief explanation is needed. I am so excited to be writing this newsletter as the new manager of Cornerstone Books. Officially, I start my new role at the beginning of January.

Richard and Sylvia Atkinson have managed the bookshop for more years than they would admit to, and have done a great job. but they feel it is time for a change - for them and the shop, and so the Trustees have asked me to take on that role.

I come with experience in selling books, with a background in design and publicity, and a deep passion for Christian books. I hope that all those things will combine to equip me to take the shop forward in the coming years. I have a lot of ideas (some may say too many!), and you will begin to see some changes to the layout of the shop, as well as the service we provide. The first of these changes is the E-newsletter, which we will use to keep you informed of new products, special offers, and the wide range of services that we have to offer.

Please feel free to send this on to anyone else who might be interested. Our contact details can be found below, and we would love to hear if you want to be added to our subscription list, or would like any more information about the shop and the services available.

So welcome to our first letter!

Every Blessing,

Paul Cook
